PROCLAMATION

CITY COUNCIL
CITY OF BLACK DIAMOND

THE CITY of BLACK DIAMOND celebrates our community's diversity. We welcome all people who live, work, visit, and go to school here, regardless of national origin, length of residence, color, race, ethnicity, language, ability, sexual orientation, gender identity, socioeconomic status, religion, or philosophical values.

Equity, inclusion, welcoming diversity, safety — both physical and psychological — and respect for all people are the CORE VALUES of The City of Black Diamond.

Division, isolation, hatred, and discrimination have no place in our community and do not reflect our core values.

Our spirit of welcoming and neighborliness is grounded in the presence of justice, equity, and inclusion. We recognize the inherent dignity of every individual. All people deserve assurance of the basic principles of human rights and equality before the law, as guaranteed in The United States Constitution, the Bill of Rights, and the Constitution of the State of Washington.

We commit to lead by example, by striving to undo systemic injustices and opening the way for opportunity. We demonstrate this commitment by continuing to listen, learn, and act on the diverse voices and needs of our community.

We, the City Council of the City of Black Diamond, Washington, do hereby resolve to do the critical work of actively affirming our community's shared values of equity, inclusion, welcoming diversity, safety, and respect. We encourage community members to join us in affirming these values of inclusion and to expect such from The City of Black Diamond.
